THE RICHARDSON DRUG CO.

Remember the Orphans—Valuable Contribution of Drugs.

The L Richardson Drug Co, of Greensboro, N. C., sent us last week a valuable contribution of drugs and medicines for our hospital. We assure our brethren and friends, one and all, that their gifts are appreciated. Such responses as this one received from this progressive Greensboro firm are encouraging. You could not make your offerings where they would be more blessed of God in the rescue of lives and salvation of souls. We have need of your help. We are praying that the Oxford Orphan Asylum will be liberally remembered on Thanksgiving day this year. We believe our prayers will be heard and answered and that many will be inclined to make a thank-offering for the support of our children here.—Orphans' Friend.

Gould Coming to Guilford.

George J Gould, of Lakewood, Ocean county, New York, has leased fifty-three separate tracts of land from different persons in this county, for shooting purposes. The leases will last for five years and Mr Gould has the option of extending them an additional five years, provided he gives notice at any time within three years from date. The land is in the vicinity of High Point and adjoins the shooting preserves of Pierre Lorillard, Jr., who has a shooting lodge in Guilford county. Mr. Gould's leased tracts comprise 8,709 acres, for which he will pay an annual rental of $558.75. He has obtained exclusive shooting privileges at comparatively small cost and in a section where game is plentiful.

GENERAL WHITE WOUNDED?

Leaving French in Command at Ladysmith.

BOERS ALL AROUND ESTCOURT.

Great Bridge at Colenso Burned. Over 25,000 New Troops Arrive at Cape Town.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 18—It seems certain that the Boers are now doing their best to surround Estcourt despite the assurance telegraphed here from Dunbar that a British column, destined to the relief of Ladysmith is about to advance. Little real confidence is felt that this force is strong enough to venture upon this move with a prospect of success.

ALL WELL AT LADYSMITH.

London, Nov. 18—Buller telegraphs from Kimberley that all was well at Ladysmith on Sunday and Monday.

ALL WELL AT LADYSMITH.

Estcourt, Nov. 17—A runner arrived here from Ladysmith bearing dispatches from Gen. White. He reports all well at Ladysmith, adding that the Boer shells have no effect. The recent sortie of the British drove the Boers from their guns and out of their position. The British did not lose a man. The town is healthy. It is rumored the Boers have occupied the village of Weenen.

25,000 TROOPS ARRIVE.

Cape Town, Nov. 18—Lord Methman and staff have arrived in pursuance of the preparations to relieve the garrison at Kimberley. Two transports have arrived bringing the reinforcements, which number over 25,000. Nearly 8,000 have already embarked for Durban

WHITE REPORTED WOUNDED

Lorenzo Marques, Nov 18—Belated dispatches from a correspondent with the Boers at Ladysmith says that on the 10th inst, eight lyddite shells were fired into the Transvaal central artillery position, without damage Commandant Weilbach captured a man who reported that Gen. White was wounded and had gone to Pietermaritzburg, leaving Gen. French in command. This does not tally with Transvaal information. The prisoner also reported the British hiding in an underground chamber to avoid the shells. About a thousand of the wounded are in hospitals. Joubert has been ill, but is better.

BOERS CLOSING IN UPON ULUNDI.

Estcourt, Nov. 17—Two Boer prisoners report the Boers in large force near Ulundi. Several bodies of Boers were previously sighted to the eastward. They are reported nearer than they were on yesterday, indicating their closing in upon the town. No news from Churchill or Haldene since their capture.

BRIDGE KESTROYLD.

Lorenzo Marques, Nov. 18—It is reported officially that the great bridge at Colenso was completely destroyed on the 15th inst.

THE BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Thought to Be Aboard a British Ship Quarantined at New York.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 18—The British steamer J W. Taylor is detained at quarantine here on suspicion of having the bubonic plague among her crew. One man died at sea on the 7th inst. of very suspicious symptoms. Capt. Waters and the ship's cook are both ill, showing indications of bubonic swellings. The sick have been transferred to Swinburne Island. All the crew have been sent to Hoffman Island.

THOUGHT HE HAD ECZEMA.

New York, Nov. 18—Hope, the Englishman, who died at sea, had been in a hospital at Santos for a fortnight, suffering with an eruption thought to be eczema, but he returned to duty before the steamer sailed. Capt. Waters and the cook had been in constant attendance upon the sick man.

CRIMINAL COURT CLOSES.

Four Are Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

Special to The Telegram.

Winston, Nov. 18—Criminal court closed yesterday eveuing. Twenty-five were sentenced during the term to the county roads at terms ranging from thirty days to four years.

The sheriff will carry away four prisoners to the state penitentiary the first of next week. They are Tom Reed, 8 years; James Bryant, 7 years; Lee Walker, 5 years, and Pearl Sanders, 5 years.

Mrs. Thos Spaugh, aged 77 years, received a stroke of paralysis this morning and died at noon at her home in Salem. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

Agricultural Experiments.

Washington, Nov. 17—According to a proposition at the meeting of the cabinet today, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson will soon begin a series of agricultural experiments in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines. If congress will make the necessary appropriation Secretary Wilson promises to carry on investigations of soil and climate and their adaptibility to certain natural products, which will be of great value. Mr. Wilson believes that rubber can be produced in Porto Rico as well as in South America and Central America.

WESTERN N. C. CONFERENCE

Opens at Concord Next Wednesday Morning.

The tenth annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will convene in Central church, in Concord, on next Wednesday morning, November 22, at 10 o'clock.

Bishop Joseph S. Key, of Sherman, Texas, will preside over the deliberations of the body, and while there will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Freeman.

The Times says that homes for the delegates have all been secured, and Concord will take care of them in her usual hearty style. Members of other denominations have gladly opened their homes to the delegates.

The sessions of the conference, after the first morning, will open at 9 o'clock a. m, lasting until 12:30. There will be no afternoon sessions, as the various committees meet at 3 o'clock. Night sessions will be held at 7:30 o'clock.

The historical society of the conference, of which Rev. C. F. Sherrill is president, will meet in Central church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Rev. P. J. Carraway will deliver his semi-centennial address, and Rev. J. D. Arnold will read a paper on Concord Methodism. Dr. E. E. Hoss, editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, is also expected to be present.

The Western North Carolina Conference covers about half of the State. The line runs from Rockingham county on the Virginia line to the Pee Dee river, and thence to the South Carolina line. The conference held its first session after division at Concord in 1890 From that time to 1898, the latest published figures, the conference has had a steady and gratifying growth. In 1890 there were 165 preachers; in 1898 there were 201. In 1890 there were 42,261 in the Sunday schools; in 1898 there were 52,097. In 1890 there were 56,524 members; in 1898 there were 70,829 In 1890 there were 577 churches; in 1898 there were 684 In 1890 there were 79 parsonages; in 1898 there were 121

Provisions Stolen.

The pantry thief was out on a rampage again last night. He made a raid on the pantry of E R. Tucker, who lives on Bellevue street, and carried off a quantity of sugar, lard and bacon. The noise he made aroused Mr. Tucker, but the rascal made his escape.

Some one also broke into the pantry of H. D. Hunt, on Asheboro street last night and appropriated to his own use all of the provissions, a few dishes and several garments which were in the room. Entrance was made through the window. There is no clue as to the guilty party, and it is thought this stealing was done by the same person who robbed Mr. Tucker's pantry.

Kicked by a Horse.

Thomas Oliver, who conducts a bicycle repair shop on South Elm street, near the McAdoo, is confined to his home today as a result of an accident which befell him yesterday evening. He was riding his bicycle down Asheboro street on his way home, and as he passed one of F. A. Matthews' dray horses, the animal kicked Mr. Oliver on the hip, and the force of the kick was so severe that he was thrown to the ground and received a few bruises. Fortunately no bones were broken, but the wounds are painful ard it will probably be several days before Mr. Oliver can return to work.

That Oak Ridge-Guilford Game

Editor Telegram:

In reply to your correspondent I will say that those who know the athletic spirit of Oak Ridge Institute sometimes accuse its teams of lack of discretion, but never of a want of pluck. A courteous and reasonable effort was made early in the season to get a game with Guilford College, but it could not be secured. Of course the offer will not be renewed.

Should Guilford College conclude that her team is a match for us, she always knows where to find us.

CUBAN EXHIBIT IN PARIS.

The Cabinet Decides That the Island Shall be Represented.

Washington, Nov. 17—At the meeting of the cabinet today the proposition to make a Cuban exhibit at the Paris Exposition was discussed. The plan was considered favorably, and it was decided that the secretary of war should take such steps as might be necessary to make the best possible exhibition of the various industrial interests of Cuba and the progress of the island under American rule.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson reported that he had received many requests from representatives of Cuban agricultural interests that the government provide for an adequate exhibit at Paris. It is probable that about $70,000 will be spent in making the exhibit, and this amount will be charged to the Cuban revenues.

Carl Kern Dead.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 18—Carl Kern, the electrician, died this morning at a hospital. He had lived a week with a broken neck.

Cotton.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Nov. 18—Cotton bids: December, 20; January 44; February, 36; March, 38; April, 41; May, 43.

The question of having a Cuban exhibit at the Paris exposition is being considered by the war department at Washington.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASES

The Next House Must Deal With Ten of Them.

NORTH CAROLINA CONTESTS

Among Them—The Proposition to Reduce the Representation of the Southern States.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 18—At the coming session of congress there will be ten contested election cases in the lower house. Most of these cases will, as usual during, republican coegresses, come from the south. There are two or three from North Carolina, one from South Carolina and two from Virginia. The case of Tolbert against Latimer will probably be decided in favor of the sitting member; at least this is the opinion of most of the South Carolina delegation in congress.

The North Carolina contests are based upon alleged fraud and the intimidation of the colored voters at the last congressional election, and as the house is republican, the present outlook is that Mr. Dockery and the other contestants from that state will be seated The cases will be among the first, it is said, to come up in the house, and one of them may probably be taken up and decided before the Christmas holidays.

The Virginia contests are those of Gen. James A. Walker, who has been a member of the house for two terms He is contesting for the seat of Judge Ithea, who was elected by a narrow margin. The district heretofore has been considered as safely republican, being the only republican district in the state of Virginia. The case, owing to the prominence of Gen Walker and his record as a Confederate soldier and to the bitterness with which the congressional campaign was fought, has attracted wide attention Representative-elect Rice, who has the certificate of election, is recognized as a forceful speaker and a man of iron nerve. His friends say that he will retain the seat, but the outlook is that Gen Walker will be seated, although the division among the Virginia republicans may affect his chances.

The remaining southern contest is that of Wise against Young, involving the title to the seat from the Second Virginia district. Both the contestant and contestee are members of former congresses. Owing to the fact that the republicans of the district are badly divided, a number openly working against the seating of Dr Wise, the belief is that Mr. Young will retain the seat.

Ex-Congressman Culberson, of Texas, who is in the city engaged in the work of codifying the laws of congress, stated the other day that his information regarding the political situation in his state leads him to believe that Representative Bailey will be elected to the United States senate to succeed Senator Chilton. Mr. Culberson's son, ex-Governor Culberson, of Texas, will be in the senate from next December, and as he is but little known in Washington there is much interest to see him. Judge Culberson, the old gentleman, served in the house for a long time, and was among the best known and most popular of the members from the south.

The proposition coming from certain republican sources to reduce the representation of the southern states, does not seem to meet with much favor among the republicans in congress. It is an old scheme which has been tried many times, but which always has and probably will fail again. A bill will be introduced on the assembling of congress by Congressman Crumpacker, of Indiana, who has figured prominently in contested election cases, being in the last house chairman of one of one of the elections committees. The southern republicans in the house are opposed to the plan and can be depended upon to use their influence against such a measure.

The common council of the city of Richmond are in Washington and had an interview with the secretary of war yesterday regarding certain improvements which are desired in the James river to improve navigation.

Quartermaster Mehrtens, U S N, who is now at Charleston, S C., where he is being tendered a royal reception, has had his leave of absence extended by Capt Crowninshield, chief of the bureau of navigation, until November 30th.

Representative Livingston, of Georgia, is in the city He says that Congressman Richardson, of Tennessee, will undoubtedly be chosen minority leader of the next house of representatives. The belief is gradually growing that the Tennessee member will be selected.

Two Horseless Carriages in Lincoln.

A telephone message from Reepsville Saturday, informed us that Mr. Dan Rhyne was no longer entitled to the honor of being the only man in the state owning a horseless carriage. Mr. John E. Cook, of Reepsville, had a horseless carriage on exhibition there Saturday. It was a Cincinnati buggy pulled by an oxen.—Lincoln Journal.

The Southern Chair Company is thinking of putting in electric lights and running two and one-half hours each night to catch up with their increasing orders. This speaks well for the Southern.

Arthur Harris, of Hickory, is expected here today for a visit to his uncle, J. W. Harris, and other relatives.

Mrs. A. P Staley returned last night from a visit to Greensboro.

Mrs M. C Henley of Greensboro is visiting [illegible]

Miss Mary Anderson, stenographer in Adams furniture factory, returned last night from a visit to Greensboro.

The Marshall Musical Comedy Company closed their engagement here last night with the "Bachelor's Dilemma" a very laughable comedy and far better than the play the night before. A larger audience greeted them too With the exception of one whom you all know couldn't sing, the performance was thoroughly enjoyed, we believe, by those present. Mabel Paige is indeed a clever actress, and her sister deserves special mention.

Let us have that modern hotel which is being talked of.

The M. P. congregation at Winston want Pastor Lowdermilk to cast his lot among them next year Mr Lowdermilk will preach his last sermon, before Conference, Sunday morning.

The Marshall Musical Comedy Company went to Lexington this morning to play there tonight.

The star gazers here have so far met with disappointment, as has Gen. Otis in capturing Aguinaldo, the Filipino chief.

Immediately after the show last night the chairs were cleared away and several young men and ladies tripped the light fantastic to the time of the piano.

PRESIDENT ATKINS' VIEWS.

Mr. Reynolds' Offer Shows Colored People Here Are Among Friends.

Winston, N C., Nov 17—In speaking today of the proposition made by R. J. Reynolds to donate $5,000 for the establishment of a hospital and nurse training school in connection with Slater Institute, President Atkins said:

"I consider the offer remarkable in every respect. So far as I know it is the most liberal contribution that has been made for such purpose by a southern white man. It means that the colored people of North Carolina are among their friends It means that these friends are ready to help the colored people along all lines that make for their permanent improvement individually and for their greater usefulness as members of the body politic. Liberal and public-spirited white citizens in Winston-Salem have already subscribed one thousand dollars towards the amount upon which Mr. Reynolds' proposal is based."

Want the James Made Deeper.

Washington, Nov. 17—A delegation from Richmond called upon the acting secretary of the navy and the secretary of war today and urged that they make a recommendation to congress for the improvement of the James river. It was represented to Mr Allen that the ship building yards on the James river make it important that the river be deepened, as naval vessels were being constructed there. It was shown to Secretary Root that the improvements under the present project would require forty years for completion and even then a satisfactory depth of water would not be obtained. In reply, Secretary Root pointed out that the matter of river and harbor improvements was with congress, but if as represented by the delegation, the statute has been construed to the detriment of Richmond, he would endeavor to see it remedied.

Mr. Moody has done a great work among the republicans and sinners of this world—all praise to him for it—but has traveled the pace that kills, and so has an attack of heart trouble that necessitates the let-up of his labors for dying humanity.

The next number on the knock-down-and-kick-out program is a conflict between Brute Corbett—who has sixteen times entered upon a retired career—and Brute Jeffries. Thematch has been formally arranged by the animals' keepers, to take place in the near future.

The Charlotte Observer prints the following local squib:

The Southern Railway people say the stars certainly must be coming by the Seaboard,and the Seaboard people say that the long delay in their arrival is conclusive proof that the stars were shipped by the Southern.

Waiving all reference to the benightedness of the stars, we notice the abovementioned as a very fine specimen of "the rag."

The English at London have been laughing that Joubert is "dead." But it appeareth that the sly old fellow is worth several deed men yet. He is a good general, and has shown himself to be considerably more Napoleonic than White. He who laughs last laughs best. If Ladysmith has fallen, we doubt not it was Old Joubert who smote her, and he's standing back there in the woods nowsomewhere with his blunt riflemen, shaking his wheezy sides, while consternation has seized his enemies

The L. Richardson Drug Co., of Greensboro, in donating a valuable contribution of drugs and medicines to the Oxford Orphan Asylum, has performed an act of charity which is highly commendable and which should wake up wealthy men all over the state to the fact that Thanksgiving Day is coming on apace, and there are thousands of orphans and other needy persons throughout the land who would cheerfully accept the crumbs of their progressive businesses, and might be made happier on this day, when the nation in its prosperity bows in humility and prayer for continued blessings.

The following rhyme written by a correspondent of the Philadelphia Record, is a fair sample of the unbridled stuff which the victories of our war-generals give rise to, and which the lapse of time has no visible effect in suppressing. The first stanza, although pure rot, bestows on an ordinary mortal all the reverence expressed in that grand sacred hymn whose second line reads: "Let angels prostrate fall."

Here is the effusion:

All praise to Admiral Dewey,
All hail to his great name;
He kept his banners floating,
And never forgot the Maine.

Hobson did the bold act,
Schley joined in soon after,
Sampson caught the dons at sea,
The balance was done by Shafter.

Hobson did the bold act;
They say what did he do.
He sunk the little boat Merrimac
To capture Cervera's crew.

Captain Wylie, of the British army in an interview with a correspondent commends highly Sergeant Todd. He asserts, when he was lying helpless and wounded in a certain fight, Todd rolled boulders around him which effectually sheltered him from the flying bullets of the Boers, and then in order to comfort him and cheer him up, Todd lay down by his side till the danger was over. This is only a little incident of war, but it shows two things very clearly: There is no mulishness in the make-up of Capt. Wylie, or, when the boulders went to rolling, he would have forgotten his wound and fled, probably carrying with him all the "gunequipment." The other demonstration is that Sergeant Todd is no fool. A boulder-fence is a fine thing to comfort a wounded comrade behind, when lead is loose in the air from the guns of dead-shot Dutchmen.

Last night the stars never fell again. The belated Leonids—where are they? Have they struck some celestial substance and been knocked into smithereens, or wandered from the track and become lost in the vast spaces of the sky? Many persons swore yesterday they would sleep last night if all the stars of the firmament came down to visit us, but they watched till after midnight, as usual. Outside all was still and the white moonlight never shone so brightly, as if in an envious rage Diana sought to dim with her superior sheen the radiance of the upstart meteorites, if they came. But they didn't come. Jupiter sat up there and slyly winked and grinned at the disappointment of the midnight watchers.

A question that has recently become as pertinent as "Where are the meteors?" is, "What has become of the astronomers?" They have suddenly become as scarce with their theories as the fake phenomena which they have heralded so blatantly for some time past.

LECTURE ON METEORS.

At Trinity College—Meeting of Scientific Society.

Correspondence Telegram.

Trinity Park, Durham, N. C.,
Nov. 17, 1899.

There is a decided increase this year in the number of college graduates who are taking advantage of the opportunities offered at Trinity for more advanced work than is done by the undergraduate. There are fifteen of these this year, while last year there were only six. All of them are A. B. graduates of Trinity, except two who are graduates of the Greensboro Female College. Nine of this number are resident students, and the remaining six are teachers in various schools in the community. The facilities for this kind of work have been much improved in library equipment, scientific apparatus and the number of instructors; and it is an encouraging sign that so many men are availing themselves of the opportunities. The presence of these select men will lift the standard of scholarship and student ideals of learning, and will prove a wholesome stimulant in the college community.

The Scientific Society held its first meeting Saturday evening. Prof. Pegram lectured on electro-chemistry. In a very lucid way he presented the subtile action of the voltaic cell and explained it as an example of the theory of solutions.

For the current year Dr. J. I. Hamaker was made president; C. N. Edwards, chairman executive committee, and L. C. Nicholson, secretary.

On Monday evening Prof. Pegram gave a lecture on meteors and "star showers" in general, describing our present visit from the Leonids. The talk was enjoyed by a large audience.

Last Saturday evening the young women who live at the Mary Duke building, gave a very pleasant evening to a number of invited guests. The program for the entertainment of the guests was a very interesting one.

Prof B. F. Sledd, of Wake Forest will lecture at the college Saturday evening.

Dr. Kilgo and Prof. Durham will leave the first of next week to attend the Western North Carolina Conference which meets in Concord. The report which the board of trustees makes to the conference this year will be most gratifying to all the friends of the institution.

A number of new books have recently been added to the library. Since last February there have been added 1,238 volumes and 555 pamphlets. The growth in the library has made it absolutely necessary to have more room.

YOUNG BEN LONG'S DEATH.

The University Saddened by It—Dr. Alderman's Tribute.

Chapel Hill, Nov. 17—The sorrow and grief for the untimely death of Mr. B. F. Long, Jr., was universal here today. President Alderman announced his death in the chapel this morning to the whole University assembled together, and in touching, tender words spoke of the pity and tragedy of his death. He also spoke of the beauty of his character and of the rich promise of intellectual and moral power contained in his life. The freshman class, Mr. Burke Bridgers acting as chairman, passed appropriate resolutions, which will be forwarded to the papers. A committee of students left for Statesville this evening to attend the funeral.

Penitential Hymn.

I.

If I have played upon my heart
The music of a lower art;
If I have hoped to win
A pleasure from the smile of sin;
If ever mistook the gleam
Of quiverings in a starless dream;
Or fondly hoped I might dispense
With spirit in a joy of sense;
Or slipped, or fallen, or gone astray,
Lead Thou the way, lead Thou the way.

II.

If I could ever yet despise
The tear-drops in two human eyes;
If ever once the voice of fame
Le't me forgetful of Thy name;
If in the strife I ever tied
My heartstrings to the lower side;
Or in the thickest of the fight
Mistook the useful for the right;
Or wielded an ignoble sword
Forgive, O Lord; forgive, O Lord.

III.

If ever once have been my care
Mere trappings of Thine altar-stair;
If ever in a lovely face
Thy handiwork I failed to trace;
If I have doubted of the good
Within the soul of womanhood;
Or judged a man by some small blot
Which Thou hast portioned to his lot;
Forgot Thy law, or scorned Thy might,
Guide me aright, guide me aright.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR COMPLEXION.

For the Face, Hands, and Complexion,

BUT

NOT A WHITE WASH.

For softening and whitening the skin, for Chapped Hands, Face and Lips, Rough Skin, and for Gentlemen to use after shaving, is highly recommended by numbers of ladies and gentlemen. Below we publish a few testimonials.

GARDNER'S ALMOND CREAM LOTION

Read What They Say.

Mr. Howard Gardner,
Dear Sir—I find your Almond Cream a delightful preparation for the skin. It is especially useful to me in counteracting the injury to my hands caused by antiseptic solution in my surgical work. It is an unrivaled article for instantly softening and whitening the hands.
Very truly yours,
Margaret M. Berry,
Supt. Astley-Cooper Hospital.

I shall always be glad I have used Gardner's Almond Cream Lotion and shall never be happy without it.
Believe mo,
(Miss) S. B. Harris.

I have used Gardner's Almond Cream Lotion for several munths and find it a most delightfel toilet article.
Mrs. B. C. Sharp.

I have used Almond Cream Lotion three winters and find it to be the best application for chapped lips and hands I ever tried.
W. R. Lane.

Mr. Howard Gardner, City,
Dear Sir—I take pleasure in saying that your preparation, Almond Cream Lotion, has been used by the young ladies in the college and they seem to like it.
Yours respectfully,
(Miss) Fannie Armfield.

The Poet Burns.

Not the least of the advantages attending life assurance is the serenity of mind which attends the provident man lying on a bed of sickness, or when he is in prospect of death—so unlike that painful anxiety for the future welfare of the family not provided for. The poet Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, said that he was "still the victim of affliction. Alas! Clark, I begin to fear the worst. Burns' poor widow and a half a dozen of his dear little ones, helpless orphans; there, I am weak as a woman's tear. Enough of this, 'tis half of my disease!"

"If you would escape the rock upon which the lamented Burns split;" take shelter from the storm that is bound to spend its fury upon you when the fatal summons comes, by at once securing the magnetic contract offered by the Provident Savings.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamerlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—Adolph L. THEY DEFIED THE LAW.

Prominent Ladies of Americus Under Sentence.

Americus, Ga., Nov. 17—The cases of the Christian Scientists who refused to be vaccinated were settled today so far as the mayor's court can settle them by the sentencing of E. J. McMath to imprisonment at the city hall for thirty days and a fine of $15. Five ladies of the congregation were sentenced to 15 days' confinement at some place to be designated by the chief of police and to pay a fine of $3 each. The same sentences of fine and imprisonment will be assessed against such other members of the congregation as may refuse to obey the vaccination ordinance.

Mr. McMath is a leading merchant of Americus, and the ladies involved belong to the best families in the city.

Counsel has been employed to represent the Christian Scientists and their cases will be carried to the superior court and will ultimately be carried to the supreme court of the state if necessary. The cases have caused a great deal of talk throughout this immediate section, and there has been no small amount of feeling aroused by the vigorous enforcement of the law.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one snould fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.
JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 23.
I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.
Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.
McELREE'S Wine of Cardui
There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT.

The Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Merrimon.

The splendid home of Mr. and Mrs. Branch Merrimon, known as the Cedars, was a blaze of light and a scene of delightful gaiety last night, the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrimon were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Dred Peacock, of this city, and Mrs. M. W. Mitchell, of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Merrimon wore black satin and lace, and so youthful and handsome did she appear that many of the guests remarked that it was impossible to realize that she had been married a score of years and is the mother of nine as fine looking children as can be found in the state.

During the evening the guests were regaled from time to time with delightful punch which was dubbed "Methodist punch," as it was refreshing but not intoxicating. Later on those present were shown into the spacious and pretty dining room to partake of salads, tongue, ices and cakes, the decorations being pure white with handsome chrysanthemums. The hall was also handsomely decorated.

This being technically known as a "china wedding," Mr. and Mrs. Merrimon were the recipients of something like one hundred pieces of handsome china.

Among those present were Judge and Mrs. J G Bynum, Mr. and Mrs. J C Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. C M Vanstory, Mrs. C P Vanstory, George Vanstory, Mr. and Mrs H W Wharton, Messrs Harry Cunningham and Joe Tate, Mr and Mrs. J S Jones and Mrs. Laura Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J W Fry, Mr. and Mrs. W E Allen, Mrs Tyre Glenn, Mrs. M W Mitchell, of Washington, D. C., Mr Warren M Mitchell, of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs Will Rankin, Mr and Mrs Hugh Scott, Dr. and Mrs. L rawford, of Jas. M Morehead, Dr and Mrs G W Whitsett, Mrs Lucy Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. W E Schenck, Mr. and Mrs Neill Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. J W Forbis, Mr. and Mrs. J R Cutchin, Mr. and Mrs J H Walsh, Mr. and Mrs L W Clark, Mrs. W P and Master Tom Beall, Mr. and Mrs. W M Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H Ireland, Mr. R K Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. J N Wills, Mrs. Mary and Miss Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J N Leak, Mr. Robert Glenn, Mrs. Gaston Ward, Mrs. Frank Trogden, Dr. and Mrs. Dred Peacock, Rev. and Mrs. T A Smoot, Miss Sims, of Guilford College, Mr. W G Balsley, Dr. and Mrs. Wyche, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilmer, Mr. and Mrs. D C Waddell, Dr. and Mrs. Grissom, and a number of others.

At 11 o'clock the guests reluctantly bade the host and hostess good-night.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

See the goats on first page?

J. R. McClamrock went to Carthage today on business.

Ernest Clapp went to Gibsonville this afternoon to spend Sunday.

W. I. Young left at noon for a brief business trip to Burlington.

"Love, Laughter and Song," will be the subject of Gov. Bob Taylor's lecture.

Holton's drug store ad today tells about good and prompt attention. Read it.

R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent of the southern, spent the day in the city.

Next Wednesday night is the time for the lecture of Governor Robert Taylor, of Tennessee.

D. W. Whitaker, of Raleigh, was here this afternoon on his way to Oak Ridge to spend Sunday.

Rev. G. R. Chrismon, who has been sick with fever for some time, is reported no better to-day.

The street force is doing some good work repairing our streets and putting them in shape for the winter.

Miss Ina Foust, of Mount Vernon Springs, is visiting her cousin, Miss Minnie Whitsett, on Arlington street.

Mrs. Lucy E. Meadows and Miss Kate Houston, of Ore Hill, were here today returning home from a visit to Winston.

Don't fail to hear the lecture on "Love, Laughter and Song," by Gov. Bob Taylor at the Academy of Music next Wednesday night.

olfax Gray drew a pistol on Cornelius Johnson last night and was arrested by Officer Cates. He will be tried this afternoon before the mayor.

A J Dunn and a force of workmen are making a granitoid sidewalk in front of the new Grissom building, also in front of Fishblate and Kaufmann's stores.

The new Grissom building is nearing completion. The cornice work is being done today, and the structure when completed will be one of the handsomest in the state.

At the First Presbyterian church tomorrow night Dr. Smith will preach a special sermon to young men, from the text, "Is the Young Man Absalom Safe?" The public is cordially invited.

You will find in today's Telegram a price list of rugs from 25 cents to $5.00 each, and door mats from 40 cents to $1 each, offered at Thacker & Brockmann's. Look it over and you may find just what you want.

The oyster supper advertised for next week, is given, we understand, under the auspices of the Altar Guild, the society of ladies in St. Barnabas church which was the successful contestant in last winter's memorable "War With the Roses," held at McAdoo Hall and at which time so much was realized for charities.

The northside and the southside football teams are practicing every day for the game at the park Thanksgiving day. The ball was purchased by the Gate City Band and will be given to the winning team. The band will furnish music at the park. The park is being put in good condition and a warm game may be expected.

Rev. W. F. Womble, pastor of a circuit near Statesville, passed through the city to-day en route to Siler City, with the remains of his little six-year-old son, who died yesterday. Interment will be made this afternoon or tomorrow morning. Prof. W. S. Snipes, a brother-in-law of Rev. Mr. Womble, came down from Winston at 11:30 and went on to Siler City at noon. Rev. W. F. Craven, of Siler City, met the remains here and returned home on the noon train.

DIED AT THE NORMAL.

Miss Abby Deans, a Student, of Wilson, N. C.

Miss Abby Deans, of Wilson, N. C., a student at the State Normal and Industrial College, died about nine o'clock this morning after a two weeks' illness. Her mother had been with her for several days and her father arrived this morning. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made. Miss Deans was a lovable young lady and was much loved by all her acquaintances. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones.

Committee Meeting.

The executive committee of the State Normal and industrial College met in annual session at the college yesterday and approved and audited the accounts of the officers of the institution, and inspected the buildings and grounds. They found everything neat and in perfect order. The committee is composed of W. D. Turner, of Statesville; R. D. Gilmer, of Waynesville, and S. M. Gattis, of Hillsboro.

Revenue Raid in Stokes.

The Danbury Reporter says:

Several revenue officers made a successful raid up in the Brown Mountain section Tuesday night of this week. One still and seven or eight stands of beer, together with a quantity of liquor were destroyed.

Everybody who reads newspapers and most of the people who don't have found out by this time that shoe factories and wholesale shoe dealers have advanced their prices on shoes. Hides are higher, leather is higher, everything that goes into a shoe is higher, consequently the shoe factories are obliged to charge more for shoes. But we had the good luck to buy largely in July and August, before the advance, and we are very glad to be able to inform our customers that we can sell them all the shoes they want at old prices, at least until Christmas. We knew prices were bound to go up and "prepared for war in time of peace," so now we have in our store the largest and best stock of shoes we ever owned and can sell them to you just as low as we ever did.

SOME TEDIOUS CASES

Disposed of by Mayor Taylor Yesterday Evening.

Mayor Taylor did not have a large docket at his court yesterday evening, but the case for stealing and the one for assault with deadly weapon proved to be tedious and complicated and consumed about an hour and a half's time.

The defendants in the stealing case were Joe Quicker, Will Bailey, Mack McGirt and Wilson, all colored.

After several witnesses were examined His Honor discharged McGirt and Nelson, but bound Quicker and Bailey over to superior court in $50 bonds. Major Steadman represented McGirt and Bailey, and W. P. Bynum, Jr., appeared for Quicker.

John Hadley and Charles Williams were arraigned for assaulting George Johnson with a pistol. Williams admitted that he fired the pistol twice, but said he did not point it at Johnson. He was charged $5 and costs for discharging firearms in the city limits, and Hadley was bound over to court for carrying a concealed weapon, the bond being fixed at $50. Col John N. Staples appeared as counsel for Hadley, while Williams was represented by G Sam Bradshaw.

Will Forbis was sent to the county roads for fifteen days for being drunk and down.

Before a U. S. Commissioner.

The negro Mack McGirt, who was charged with being implicated in the stealing of some tobacco from the Southern Tobacco Company, after being released by Mayor Taylor yesterday evening, was arrested by Deputy Marshal J. A Logan on a federal warrant, charged with having in his possession unstamped tobacco for retail.

Federal warrants were also sworn out for Joe Quicker and Will Bailey, and the three were given a hearing at 10 o'clock this morning before S. L Trogdon, United States commissioner. McGirt was again released, but Mr Trogdon has not yet rendered his decision as to Quicker and Bailey.

Work Will Begin Monday.

Frank P. Milburn, the well known architect of Charlotte, was in the city a short while last evening on his return home from a business trip to Chapel Hill. When asked about the sheds for the platform at the passenger depot, in this city, as mentioned in the Telegram several days ago, he replied that C. A. Wilson, of Salisburg, has the contract and will arrive here Monday morning with a large force of hands and will begin work at once. The sheds will be completed in sixty days. Mr. Milburn drew the plans for the sheds, which will overspread the entire platform (except the tracks) from South Elm to Ashe street crossing.
